I saw this Day in the paper a statement made of the application of Elder Corden to the Magistrates for to Licence a house in Burslem as follows. Latter Day Saints Alfred Corden a young man of the working Class made application to Mr Rose to have a house in Burslem Licensed for preching in He stated that he had latley been preach ing in Hanley and that he had been pro= hibited in consequence of the House not being Licensed. M^r Rose-To what pers= uasion do you belong? aplicant. To the Latterday Saints who have lately been sent by God:

[45]

M^r Rose.- Have you been sent by God?

applicant.- Yes

M^r Rose - I think there are plenty of Churches
& Chapels in the neighbourhood without Licincig fresh places. Applicant - (with great modesty yes, but God does not seem to approve of them? The Magistrate not appearing also posed to argue the point with the young man, the matter Dropped.

Now Look out
